

Jen Haan Memorial Speaker Series

Three Evenings of Discussion about Contemporary Issues

Is Yellow White or Black? Race in America

Wednesday, January 27, 2010, 7:30 pm

R.J. Grey Junior High School Library, Acton

Paul Watanabe

- Professor, Department of Political Science, UMass Boston
- Principal research and teaching interests are in the areas of American foreign policy, American political behavior, ethnic group politics, and Asian Americans
- Author of Ethnic Groups, Congress, and American Foreign Policy

Executive Function Processes: The Key to Successful and Independent Learning

Wednesday, February 24, 2010, 7:30 pm

R.J. Grey Junior High School Library, Acton

Kalyani Krishnan

- Assistant Director of Assessment, Institute of Learning and Development
- Works with children and adults to understand learning through neuropsychological evaluations and to help each find their unique path to success
- Author of Executive Function in Education, Lynn Meltzer, Ph.D. (editor)

The State of the Commonwealth's Current Financial Condition

Wednesday, March 24, 2010, 7:30 pm

R.J. Grey Junior High School Library, Acton

Michael J. Widmer

- President, Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation
- More than 20 years of management and political experience in both the public and private sectors in Massachusetts
- During the 1970's, Dr. Widmer served with the Sargent administration as Special Assistant to the Secretary of Human Services and in the first Dukakis administration.

Cost: $10 per event, $25 for all three events; students may attend free of charge.

Tickets are available at the door or online at www.MKTix.com

Sponsored by

Acton Area League of Women Voters

Post Office Box 817 • Acton, MA 01720

www.lwv-aa.org • info@lwv-aa.org • 978-266-0145

Opinions expressed by the speakers are not necessarily those of the League of Women Voters.